DESCRIPTION:

This run is not for the faint of hearts. It has a steep sand climb in the beginning. Followed by a narrow and rough rock garden. After that there is a long rocky uphill follow by a very steep and loose downhill. The rest of the run is more of the same. Due to the difficulty and length of this run expect a long day, we never finish early. This run has a history of damage including one bad roll over, broken hubs, broken axels, broken shock mounts, and some body damage.
